OUR SCHOOL

BOARD OF EDUCATION

They Charted Our Course

Seldom do people realize the great importance of the Board of Education in their school. Most of us think that the school affairs manage themselves, and we fail to realize that someone must conduct the school system.

The School Board has striven to provide each student with a firm foundation on which to build the ideals of democracy and a firm background for future needs. The members have given of their time generously to determine matters of policy, such as courses, school calendar, salaries and expenditures.

We Seniors greatly appreciate the work of the School Board and its worthy and successful attempts to make our school life more pleasant and purposeful.

ALMA MATER

All hail to Alma Mater,
Hail to Brentwood High,
A fountain of pure water,
Rising to the sky.
We shall strive for you,
Sing our praise to you,
And we'll e'er be true
To the gold and blue.
With love and truth and honor,
And God to be our guide
Live on, our Alma Mater,
To the end of time.

In you, our Alma Mater,
Lives our mounting pride.
In you, O Alma Mater,
Lives our future's guide.
We shall strive for you,
A name to raise.
Our very lives
Shall exalt your praise.
We pledge in aspiration
To strive for aught but good,
For truth and peace and progress
In dear Brentwood.

HAIL, HAIL TO BRENTWOOD HIGH

Hail, hail to Brentwood High,
For the blue and gold
We'll fight! fight! fight! fight!
Hail, hail to Brentwood High,
We will always cheer her;
Rah! rah! rah! rah!
All sing and cheer her on,
For she's bound to win today,
For we will fight! fight! fight!
With all our might, might, might,
For dear old Brentwood High.

SCHOOL PRAYER

Dear Father, hear us who are assembled here this day in quest of knowledge, permit us not to go astray; arm us with a resistance against evil; grant us health to work our pleasures, wealth to support our needs, strength to battle with difficulties and overcome them, patience to toil for some good accomplishment, charity to see the good in our fellow students, faith to make real the things of God. Consent to our petitions and teach us to understand and appreciate this great gift of mankind, the gift of learning.

We End Our Course

After four years of hard work and fun, here we are at the end of our high school voyage. We have received much enjoyment and profit from our school days at Brentwood.

Last autumn we organized, electing Elmer McClure President for the fourth year to lead our many activities: the class party at the home of Don Thomas; the class play, SEVENTEEN, enjoyable proof of the dramatic talent in our class; the Junior-Senior prom at the South Hills Country Club (O happy night!); and our class picnic at South Park.

On March sixth, many Senior boys transferred to Defense School. They were graduated with the rest of the Senior Class.

Finally, we came to the big moment—Commencement. In our auditorium for the last time as Seniors, we joined in singing our Alma Mater, before leaving to help our country in its struggle for democracy and freedom.

They Approach The Harbor

The organization meeting of the Junior Class was held October first. At this meeting, the class, sponsored by Miss Brednich, elected officers and formulated plans for the school year. These plans included a picnic, and a party in the form of a box social. After several postponements, however, the party resulted in a barn dance, given by a small group of the class.

This year, as in the past, the Junior and Senior Classes are again co-operating to make the Junior-Senior Prom the event it has always been. The Juniors also collaborated with the Sophomores in presenting "One Wild Night."

This Junior Class has done much toward promoting unity and co-operation in Senior High School activities.

OF BRENTWOOD HIGH

And Long Remember . . .

Last October the ANTHEM co-editors, Betty Parfitt and Harry Theis, and the literary editors, Dreama Bottoms and William Manko, were chosen by Mr. John R. Divens, editorial sponsor, with aid of the faculty. Miss Louise Wunderlich, business sponsor, with other senior teachers selected the business manager, Donald Thomas, and the circulation manager, June Bradstock. The staff was arranged by the editors after careful consideration of the questionnaires which the seniors filled out in September. Preferences expressed on the questionnaires as to the particular section desired were followed everywhere possible.

The editors were made familiar with the engraver and the printer by visits to their plants and observation of their workings.

The senior section and the photography section of the staff completed their work efficiently and thoroughly. We wish to express appreciation to Richard Grimm, who made the football montage and many snapshots. Fern

The Co-Editors and Managers, looking for ideas.

Ferguson worked diligently on picture schedules. It was she who continually prodded the procrastinating seniors to have their picture taken. Dreama Bottoms proved to be the right person for literary editor, and just when William Manko, our co-literary editor, was beginning to work hard, he transferred to defense school. If you seniors like your individual write-ups, perhaps Dreama wrote them. If not, just try to find out who did.

The business section under Miss Wunderlich's assiduous direction closed the year with a rare financial success. Despite priorities, business uncertainties and rugged competition Donald Thomas and his staff succeeded in reaching their advertising goal. June Bradstock displayed her leadership by carrying on a well-organized campaign which resulted in a banner circulation. A complete system of bookkeeping was also inaugurated.

Although this was Mr. Divens' and Miss Wunderlich's first year in association with the yearbook, they were most helpful in innumerable ways. Without them we should have been hopelessly lost.

The co-editors labored tirelessly in organizing, writing and compiling. Their only wish, as well as the sponsors' and the staff's, is that the ANTHEM of '42 with its various changes will please you.

THE MINARET

All The News . . . .

Brentwood High School is proud of its monthly newspaper, the MINARET. Each year has seen steady improvement, from its original mimeographed form to the present streamlined printing. This year, for the first time in its history, the MINARET received state-wide recognition—an honorable mention at the Pennsylvania School Press Association Convention. Two MINARET Staff members of 1941, Anne Weaver and Thomas McIntosh, also won first awards in the P.S.P.A. annual contest.

Ten members of the 1942 staff and their sponsor, Mrs. Zelda Coons, were fortunate in being able to attend this year's School Press Association Convention, which was held in Harrisburg on Friday and Saturday, October twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth. These ten were Jean Beard, June Gilmore, Lois Green, Mary Esther Green, Doris McWilliams, Ada Murray, Mary Coletta Rodgers, Wesley Siemon, Jean Weaver and Ralph Zahniser. Two ANTHEM staff members, Harry Theis and William Smith, were guests of the MINARET at this journalistic conference.

Since only four members of the journalism class of last year returned to the MINARET this autumn, the nucleus of the staff was composed of newcomers to the field of journalism. Much credit must go to the hard-working Editors and Business Manager Edward Bell.

The climax of this year's activities was the annual banquet held in April. It was at this affair that the Seniors who deserved credit for their contributions to the paper received gold journalistic keys, and that Co-Editors Mary Coletta Rodgers and Ralph Zahniser relinquished their combined editorship to their successors. Other important staff heads were also named.

The present staff wishes continued success to its capable sponsor, Mrs. Zelda Coons; the assistant sponsor, Mr. Leo Murphy; and to the staff for the coming year.

ORGANIZATIONS

FORUM

This year has seen the Forum accomplish much: social reorganization plans for next year, a guidance clinic, Handbook revision, and a lost and found department. Miss Moore has made it a laudable example of democratic government — "of the students, by the students, and for the students."

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, reorganized under Miss Bracken in 1941, undertook to familiarize the members with the finer points of high school dramatics. Among its activities were assembly plays, a spring dance and a picnic.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

The Traffic Squad is an organization sponsored by Mr. McDonald, responsible for the conduct and order of the students during the changing of classes and at dismissal time. This squad has been functioning since 1932 and is manned by the Senior High students.

THE ANTHEM

GIRL RESERVES

"To face life squarely and find and give the best" is the motto of the Girl Reserves, sponsored by Miss Whitling. No one can forget the Beau-Brummel Ball or the Fashion Show held by the Girl Reserves.

G. A. L.

The G.A.L. was organized under the sponsorship of Miss Cryder to arouse an interest in sports and to train girls to assist in intramural games. This program has been ably carried out.

GIRLS' HI-Y

Leadership, adaptability and scholarship are the characteristics of the Girls' Hi-Y. Sponsored by Miss Mason, the Hi-Y this year held a dance, a party, a Mother and Daughter Banquet, the Faculty Tea and a picnic.

CLUBS

BOYS' HI-Y

Clean living, clean speech, clean athletics and clean scholarship—a worthy motto for a worthy organization. Sponsored by Mr. Divens, the Hi-Y held the Christmas semi-formal, the book collection, a party, and a picnic at South Park.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club under the sponsorship of Miss Wunderlich, has been established for the enrichment of the commercial curriculum. It provides vocational information and promotes social unity and friendship among the students of the department.

PEP-O-CRATS

The Pep-O-Crats Club was organized by Mr. Yates to train girls who wish to become cheerleaders. Judging from this year's cheering squad, we find that the club has met with gratifying success.

THE ANTHEM

SOUND SQUAD

The Sound Squad under Mr. Ayers' guidance supervises sound projectors and amplifying equipment. They also operate the P. A. system for dances. Members include William Schaub, George Dewalt, George Deutsch, Arthur Huggler, William Dewald, George Mock and Richard Butler.

MIMEOGRAPH SQUAD

The Mimeograph Squad under the sponsorship of Miss Wunderlich is a group of students trained in cutting stencils, mimeographing work for faculty members and school organizations, and keeping files of all important stencils. Lois Franz was chief typist this year.

STAGE CREW

The Stage Crew under Mr. Kuhn's supervision has charge of scenery, lighting and sound effects. Co-managers Jordan Ustabashieff and Roy Sinkovitz are assisted by Robert Heintze, Calvin Whitehouse, Wayne Steinbeck, Joseph Sughrue, Wallace McCoy, William Hoover and Ralph Zahniser.

ORGANIZATIONS

MONOGRAM CLUB

The purpose of the Monogram Club, organized in 1935, is to promote friendliness and co-operation among the football lettermen. Mr. Thurbon assumed sponsorship in 1941. The credit for the successful Thanksgiving Dance goes to the Monogram Club.

MUSIC CLUB

The Music Club, composed of members of the band and orchestra, takes charge of all the business connected with these two organizations. Much of the efficiency of the club can be attributed to its sponsor, Mr. McIlroy.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

One of the service organizations is the group of Library Assistants. The members help to make your library run more smoothly. Charging books, helping students find books, keeping shelves in order and doing clerical work are but a few of the many things they do to help you find the things you need, quickly and efficiently.

Seventeen

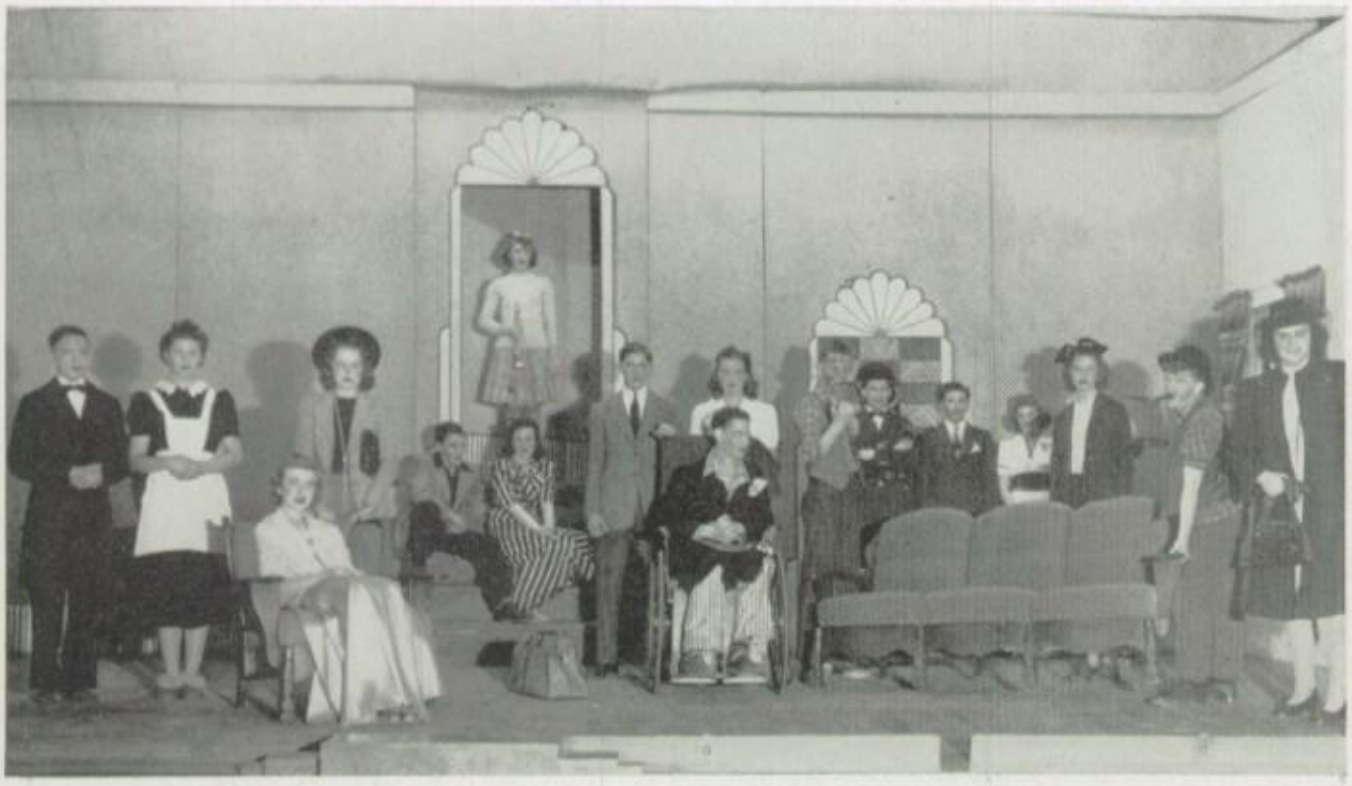
"Seventeen" became more than an age, or shall we say a condition dear to the hearts of most of the Seniors, when the Senior Class play of this name, was presented. The play, held in the auditorium, Friday, April 10, was directed by Miss Brednich.

Warren Taylor portrayed Willie Baxter, seventeen, a victim of "puppy love." The object of his affections was Lola Pratt, played by Dreama Bottoms.

Lola, May Parcher's cousin, is irresistible to most boys of May's town, and Willie is no exception. Her presence, along with that of his "little sister," not too understanding parents, and entirely unco-operative friends, plays havoc with Willie's life in this amusing comedy by Booth Tarkington.

The finished product seems to have rewarded well the time and effort given by Miss Brednich and the cast to make the final dramatic presentation of the year a success.

ACTIVITIES PLAY



One Wild Night

"One Wild Night" prevailed in Brentwood High School auditorium, Friday night, January 30. Not literally, of course, for "One Wild Night" was the three-act farce, presented by the Sophomore and Junior Classes

George Mock, a Junior, was cast as Rodney Dodd, a young hypochondriac. Sophomore Janet Reichenbach portrayed Charlotte Allen, vivacious and attractive companion of Rodney's invalid Aunt Myra. Upon meeting Charlotte, Rodney was stricken violently with love. To impress Charlotte, he had to become a man of action. Aunt Myra, however, could not abide activity, and her poor health and rich fortune demanded consideration.

When Rodney overheard Doctor Bell talking about his dying Oncidium Papilio, he at once imagined himself about to die. Therefore, he decided to spend his last remaining hours in doing things which he dared not do before. Consequently—"One Wild Night."

Miss Janet Campbell directed the play, the net proceeds of which—$180.00—were turned over to the Activity Fund.

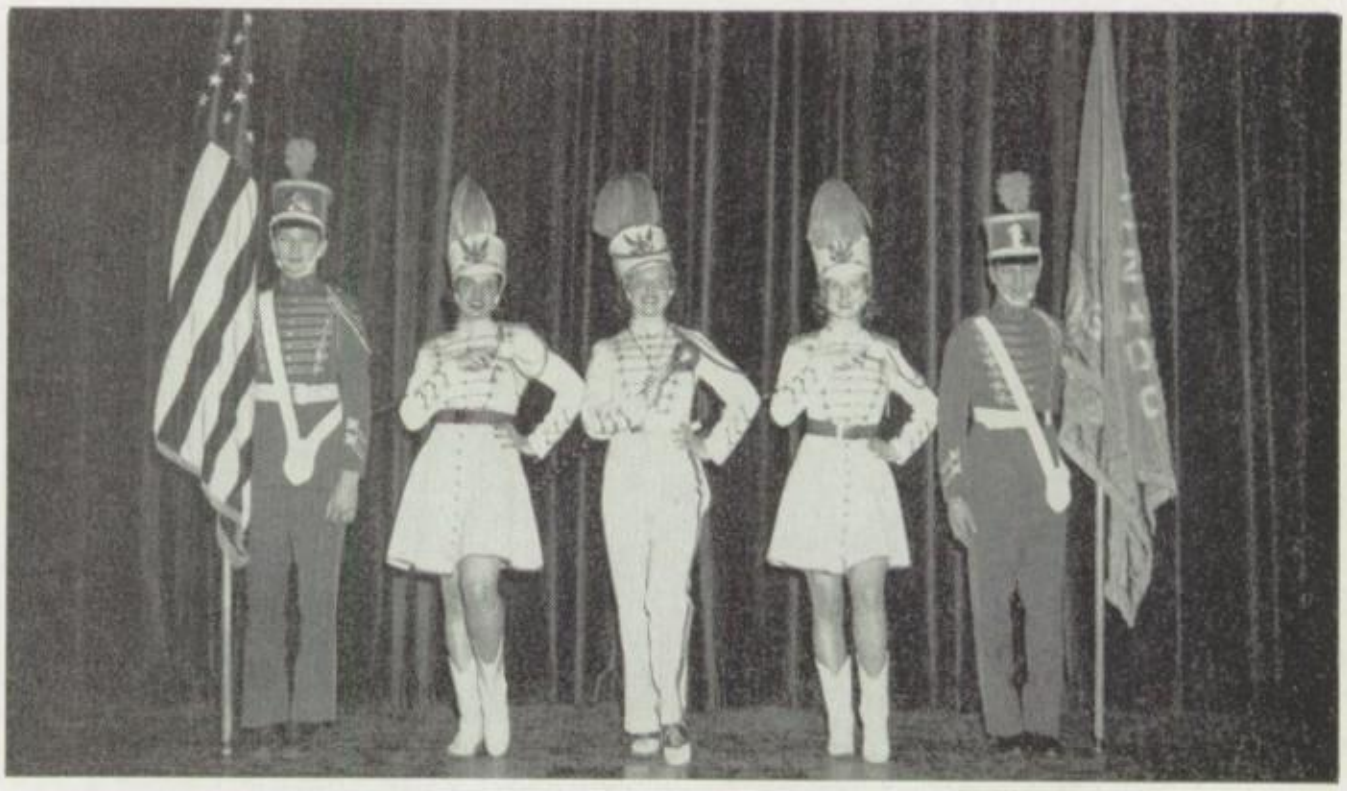
"WHY THE CHIMES RANG"

Dramatic as well as music talent was employed to produce a truly awe-inspiring Christmas program, "Why the Chimes Rang." A mellow choral background, supplied by the Girls', Boys' and Mixed Choruses, brought to life this beautiful old Christmas tale—a final tribute to Mr. Munn.

DRUM MAJORS

A high stepping gait and twirling batons make our Drum Majors outstanding everywhere. Accompanying the band at all games were Jean Lype, Dorothy Fairfield, Phyllis Dininger, Bette Grady and Thomas Connor with flag bearers Donald Junker and William Jackson.



MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

BAND

Our band is the pride and the thrill of every Brentwood student. Clad in their blue and gold military uniforms, they are a spectacle to see—and the best.

A free concert was given and they played at football games to urge the boys on to victory.

The band, under Mr. McIlroy, is composed of seventy members, led by five drum majors.

MIXED CHORUS

The Mixed Chorus is in its fifth year. It is under the supervision of Mrs. Koerber. The blended voices of its members are frequently heard by the students and the public in assemblies and in the Music Festival.

GIRLS' CHORUS

The Girls' Chorus, composed of 84 girls under Mrs. Koerber's direction, provides relaxation, entertainment, and education in group singing. A vocal examination and natural zest for such work are the requirements. The chorus participated in the Christmas program, the Music Hour and the Choral Contest at Clairton.

THE ANTHEM

MUSIC ORGANIZATIONS

ORCHESTRA

Under Mr. McIlroy's leadership, the orchestra composed of twenty-seven members, has once again made us proud. Contributing to the excellency of the organization is the fact that so many of its members are soloists. The orchestra has provided music for assemblies, plays and special programs.

CLARINET QUARTET

A new organization this year which has played in our assemblies and other entertainments, the Quartet consists of James Moore, Phyllis Dininger, Doris Acker and James Glaid.

This is an addition to the music talent and has been highly praised by attentive audiences.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

Quainted in checkered gingham, the Girls' Ensemble delighted audiences with its singing of "I Can't Do This Sum," one of the many numbers in its repertoire. Directed by Mrs. Koerber, it is composed of Evelyn Cook, Adeline Capizzi, Doris Pietz, Mary Green, Jean Weaver, Dorothy Rush, Jean Arnoni, Lois Green and Dorothy Fairfield.

CHEERLEADERS

Fight team, Fight! And what team could desire a more inspiring incentive than these talented misses. On hand to lead the crowd in rousing cheers at all our games were Dorothy Robbins, Norma Rahe, Harriett Bitner, Marjorie Robinson, Beverly Justice, Martha Hesse, and Eileen Young.

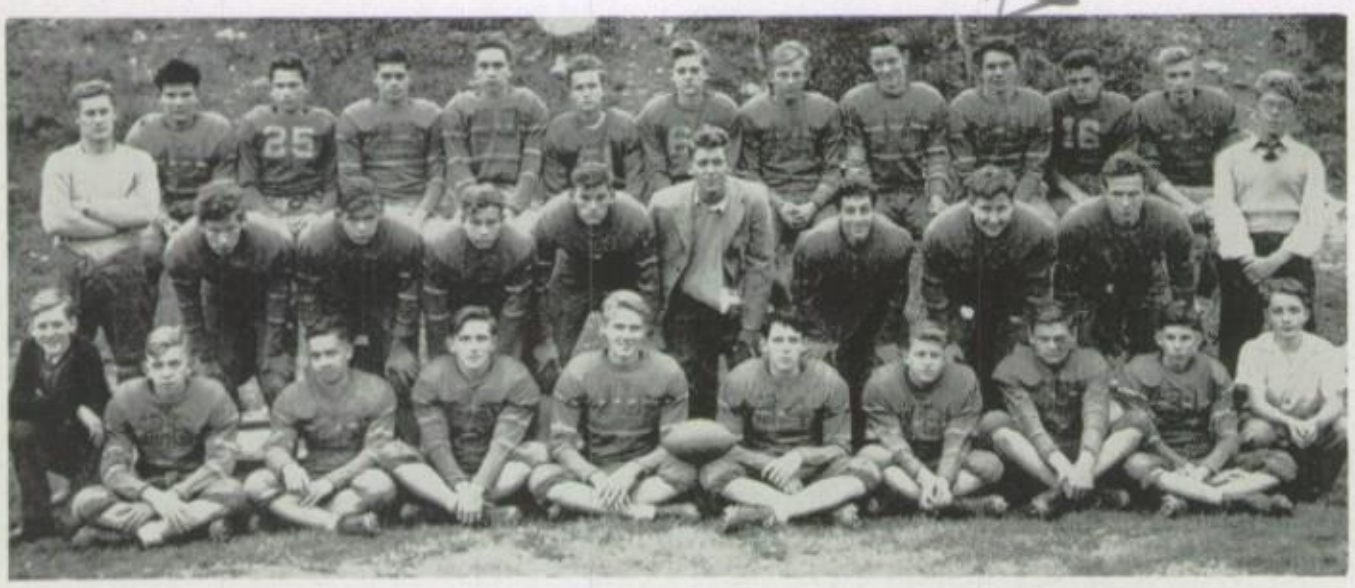
FOOTBALL



Hit The Line . . . .

The Brentwood football season started on August twenty-fifth when the team reported for pre-season practice. The boys were put through two tough drills a day, and soon the team started to shape up, under the new coach, Robert Thurbon.

The first game of the season found Brentwood slated to meet its neighboring rival, Baldwin. Brentwood came out on the short end of a 7-0 score. In the next game Brentwood met a strong Peabody eleven and was defeated 26-7. Mt. Lebanon gained a victory by trimming the Spartans 39-0. The Spartans then participated in three games under the lights at Munhall, Washington and Shaler. The bad luck continued and all three were lost, Munhall 39-0, Washington 78-6, and Shaler 14-6. The Spartans were again stopped by Crafton 26-0. The last two games were played in ankle deep mud with Bellevue and Dormont, the games being dropped 12-0 and 13-0, respectively.

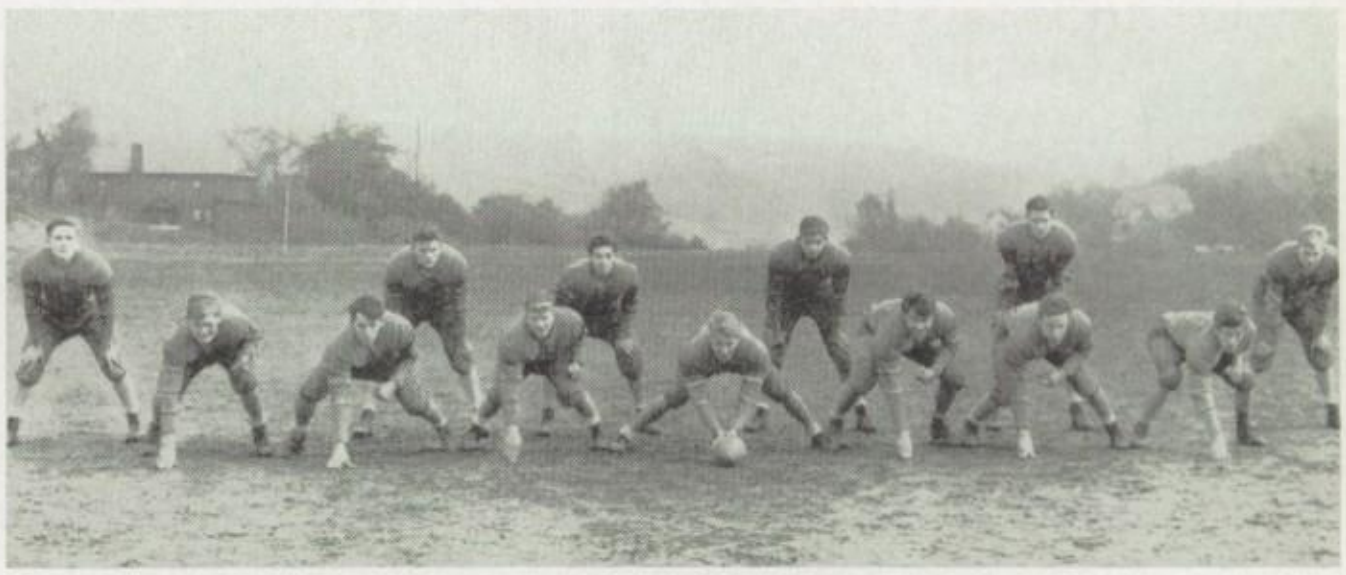
Despite the bad season, due recognition should be given to the boys who did more than their share: Captain Alan Carnes, end, played four years for Brentwood, a tough scrapper and able captain. Lloyd Freed, another four-year man, playing tackle, was the back-bone of the line. John Snee, end, played only his senior year and held his position well for his one year's experience. Bill Henkel, right half, played only one year for Brentwood, but it was long enough for us to realize his value to the team. Bill Koerner, full-back, suffered a broken arm early in the season and was left out of much action. Other valuable seniors were Kirchner and Schuetz.

The lettermen: Seniors—Carnes, Freed, Snee, Koerner, Henkel; Juniors—Engel, Fox, Mock, Boch, C. Zuber, G. Zuber, Hughes; Sophomores, Mawhinney, Appel, Thomas, Falcone, Britt; Freshmen—Hansen and Monaco.

The prospects for next year are much brighter with a larger and more experienced squad expected to report.



SENIOR BASKETBALL

Up It Goes . . . .

The 1941-1942 basketball campaign was rather a mediocre one for Brentwood's hoopmen who wound up their W.P.I.A.L. competition with a record of five wins and nine losses—with a season record of nine and eleven.

After an encouraging start by sweeping through the first six pre-league games without a defeat, including Munhall, Section 6 champs, among the victims, Brentwood at last grudgingly bowed to a visiting Avalon quintet, 19-17. The opening league encounter at Dormont found the Blue and Gold striking out for championship laurels on the wrong foot as they dropped a 32-24 decision to our hilltop rival. It was not until Crafton visited the Brentwood gym that the boys were able to chalk up their initial mark in the win column. Then followed a defeat at Carnegie's hands, and wins over Stowe, and Mt. Lebanon to complete the first half.

The second half saw the Spartans winning over only Carnegie and Stowe, and being subdued by the remaining five teams in the section.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CAMPAIGN

Coraopolis at Brentwood—The near upset victory that the Brentwood five fell short of accomplishing over the eventual "champs."

Stowe at Brentwood—White-hot was the description of the Spartans that evening.

Brentwood at Carnegie—Giant-killer "Mickey" Finn scored six points in two minutes to bring victory back home. The last bucket was tallied as the timer's horn sounded.

Will He Make It . . .

Under the tutorship of Coach Robert Thurbon the Juniors had another successful season. From a card of seventeen games the Little Spartans won ten games, although in league competition they broke even, tripping Mt. Lebanon and Baldwin twice each, but being downed by Mt. Oliver and Homeville in the four games.

The Little Spartan playing personnel may be summarized in this manner:

Captain "Sonny" Evans and Sam Monaco were one, two in scoring, although Carl Stoker had an A-1 opportunity to be sitting in the high chair until it was tipped over by an illness which overtook him late in the season.

The mythical most valuable player award went to Louis Buchanan who started slow but finished fast, with Evans nipping at his heels for this honor all the way.

Bob Murray was the most consistent foul tosser, and his record of forty-four out of fifty during practice gave the boys something to shoot at.

Says Mr. Thurbon, "That's a Stadium team if their possibilities develop."

TRACK AND CROSS-COUNTRY

TRACK TEAM

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good" but when the March breezes blow spring sports this way, it is good to see the Brentwood thin-clads take to the cinders for Alma Mater fervently to uphold the fine traditions of previous track squads. Win or lose—they always try hard!

CROSS-COUNTRY

A hard-plugging group of Spartans under Mr. Costolo, carried the banners of teamwork and sportsmanship over a long, hard trail for B.H.S. in the fall of 1941. Even though only a few boys participated in this most strenuous of sports, they deserve the praise of every loyal student.

THE ANTHEM

GOLF TEAM

Two Seniors, Dewalt and Taylor, will lead this year's squad through a very tough schedule. Although the team has little experience behind it, Mr. McDonald and the squad hope to attain a high rating in their W.P.I.A.L. section this year.

TENNIS TEAM

The Tennis Team started this year with only two lettermen, Fisher and Thomas. Last year's squad, coached by Mr. Ayers, took top honors in the W.P.I.A.L. matches by winning the section four title. With this record behind them the team hopes to gain a record equal to that of last year's team.

TEA DANCE

"Swing and Sway with the best orchestras of the day," is the thought of the students who attend the tea dances every Friday. The P. A. system provides the music with a large and up-to-date selection of records. All Tea Dances are sponsored by the Forum, although a different service organization is honored every week.

TYPING CLASS

With a fine background of commercial studies, these students of Miss Whitling's typing class will too, perhaps, some day join the ranks of the successful business people, advertising in a future ANTHEM.

THE ADVERTISEMENTS . .

The editors of the Anthem, on behalf of the student body, assure their advertisers that their co-operation which helped make possible this yearbook, is greatly appreciated.
